

The Taylor's Butterfly and Hummingbird Mix is made up of 22 species that are designed to attract and provide nectar for Hummingbirds for the entire season. The wide variety of flowers and brilliant colours will appeal to the Hummingbirds as well as Butterflies. The mixture is made up of 42% Annuals and 58% Perennials to give lasting beauty.

Botanical Name	Common Name	%
Lupinus perennis	Perennial Lupine	10
Lupinus polyphyllus	Russell Lupine	10
Lupinus succulentus	Annual Lupine	10
Dianthus barbatus	Sweet William	7
Eschscholzia californica	California Poppy	7
None of the following kinds exceed 5% of the total mixture by weight:
Centaurea cyanus	Bachelor Button
Rudbeckia hirta	Black-Eyed Susan
Gaillardia aristata	Blanket Flower
Iberis umbellata	Candytuft
Clarkia elegans	Clarkia
Aquilegia vulgaris	Columbine
Phlox drummondii	Drummond's Phlox
Marabilla jalapa	Four O'Clocks
Digitalis purpurea	Foxglove
Clarkia amoena	Godetia
Coreopsis lanceolata	Lance-Leaved Coreopsis
Oenothera missouriensis	Missouri Primrose
Echinacea purpurea	Purple Coneflower
Delphinium ajacis	Rocket Larkspur
Penstemon strictus	Rocky Mountain Penstemon
Cheiranthus allionii	Siberian Wallflower
Lobularia maritima	Sweet Alyssum
		Total: 100%

Seeding Rate: 12 - 15 Lb/ Acre (1 Lb. per 3,000 sq. ft.)

If Hydroseeding, seeding rate should be doubled.
Approximately 306,000 seeds per pound.